

Cassidy Dixon - Soprano

Cassidy Dixon, soprano, is a graduate of the Peabody Conservatory of Music with a Master of Music in Voice Performance and Pedagogy, and a graduate of the University of Delaware with a Bachelor of Music in Voice Performance. This past winter, Ms. Dixon made her role debut as Adina in Donizetti's L'elisir d'amore with Opera Magnifico, where she was praised for portraying "a sassy Adina through her powerful vocal range and volume" by the Black River Journal. Other recent performances include Fiametta in The Gondoliers and Edith in The Pirates of Penzance with the Young Victorian Theatre Company, Belinda in Dido and Aeneas with the Sotto Voce, Musetta in La Boheme with Opera Magnifico, Susanna in Le Nozze di Figaro with MIOpera, and Fiordiligi in Così fan tutte and Elizabeth Bennet in the stage-premiere of Pride and Prejudice at Peabody Conservatory. Ms. Dixon has won many prizes and awards, including with the Friday Morning Music Club, the Sylvia Green Vocal Competition, Saltworks Opera, NATS, and the Metropolitan Opera Laffont Competition. This fall, Ms. Dixon will perform as the soprano soloist for the Annapolis Chorale's fall concert, and she will return to Opera Magnifico as Susanna in their production of Le Nozze di Figaro.
